(NEW YORK, NY.) June 08, 2018 – The CenterCap Group LLC (“CCG”) announced today that Gila R. Cohen has been appointed as a member of its Advisory Board. She has more than 20 years of financial services and real estate experience, including providing consulting services, strategic advisory and private placement, both as a principal and advisor. Ms. Cohen has advised leading institutional real estate CIOs, investment advisors and managers on product development and expansion, the implementation of institutional marketing initiatives and corporate organization.

Ms. Cohen recently joined as a Managing Partner of Castle Lanterra Properties. In that role, Ms. Cohen will focus on leading the firm’s corporate strategy, mergers and acquisitions and private placement efforts. Previously, Ms. Cohen was a Senior Consultant, Head of Corporate Strategy and Client Relations for Courtland Partners, an institutional real asset advisor. At Courtland Partners she advised large corporations, insurance companies, RIAs and pension funds on real estate allocations and capital deployment opportunities within their portfolios. She has meaningful experience in building platforms, having held senior roles at Capital Dynamics as Managing Director and Global Chief Operating Officer of Private Equity and Golub Capital’s Chief Administrative Officer and Head of Business Development. Over the course of her career, she has been involved in a broad range of transactions throughout the real estate and other sectors. She held senior investment banking and trusted advisor roles at J.P. Morgan, UBS Investment Bank and Credit Suisse First Boston.

Ms. Cohen holds a B.A. in Art History with a concentration in Mathematics from Columbia University.
